WHAT QUALIFICATIONS WILL I GET?

Level 4 Diploma in Therapeutic Counselling

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The Level 4 Diploma in Therapeutic Counselling supports the development and demonstration of skills, knowledge and understanding of Counselling, towards achieving professional status as a counselling practitioner. It is also suitable for work roles where counselling skills are needed for example: nursing, teaching, social work, voluntary sector, the police and armed forces.

The purpose of this qualification is to provide an opportunity to develop work-based skills within an ethical framework and develop an understanding of the impact of a diverse society on clients, counselling therapeutic theories, self-awareness and research methodologies, all of which will be demonstrated through a 100-hour supervised placement which is a key component of this qualification. You will develop a deep understanding of one therapeutic theory with knowledge of two others.

The course involves a high degree of experiential learning and self-awareness exercises, which will be demanding of the self in interacting with others. All students are required to contribute to and successfully complete all requirements for all unit/s or the full qualification. Overall attendance is 90% pass rate. All assignments must achieve a pass in order to gain a Level 4 Diploma in Therapeutic Counselling (referred assignments can only be resubmitted once).

There is a strong focus and emphasis on experiential learning developed through skills practice to include professional discussions, workshops, process groups and group training supervision. The course seeks to recreate real-world scenarios to allow you to develop your skills. You will be required to allow additional study time in addition to the guided learning of 310 hours (GLH) outlined below. GLH is part of the total qualification time of 610 hours (TQT). TQT includes all other time taken in preparation, study or any other form of participation in education or training but not under the direct supervision of a lecturer, supervisor or tutor (regarded as independent study). A strong disciplined approach and commitment to study is required at this level to include reading research articles and journals whilst presenting an academic standard of all work.

You will complete seven mandatory units.

UNITS/TOPICS COVERED:

- Unit 1 - Professional Organisational Issues in Counselling (Written Assignment) – 75 GLH
- Unit 2 - Counselling in a Diverse Society (Written Assignment) – 30 GLH
- Unit 3 - Counselling Theory (Recording and Written Assignment) – 50 GLH
- Unit 4 - Advanced Counselling Skills (Written Assignment) – 50 GLH
- Unit 5 - Self-Awareness for Counsellors (Written Assignment) – 45 GLH
- Unit 6 - Research Methodologies in Counselling (Research Project) – 40 GLH
- Unit 7 - Counselling Placement (Externally Marked) – 20 GLH

TYPE OF ASSESSMENT:

Internal and external assessment, internal and external moderation. Specific requirements and restrictions may apply to individual units within the qualification. All assessed grades are not final and will be subject to both internal and external moderation.

EQUIPMENT NEEDED:

- Learners on this qualification should have access to adequate IT facilities
- Pens, highlighters and a notepad
- Red Folder with 10-part dividers

WHERE CAN IT LEAD?

Successful completion of this course leads to a professional level of competency as a qualified professional counsellor. Learners can progress towards national accreditation status with professional lead bodies upon meeting the requirements of the course. There is potential for this qualification to help in search for employment in a particular variety of settings e.g. GP practices and voluntary and statutory organisations. Additionally, learners may progress onto a Postgraduate and Post Qualifying course in counselling studies that are designed to enhance the practice, skills and knowledge of a practising counsellor. This provides academic progression alongside a recognised career pathway. It combines the professional aspects e.g. theoretical knowledge, counselling skills development, self-appraisal and commitment to provision of an ethical quality service and professional development element, which is necessary to ensure that the counsellor is fit to practice.
