COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Get Ready is an exciting new programme offered by East Surrey College with a focus on supporting young people to manage the expectations of college life, achieve their qualifications and progress to fantastic destinations at ESC and beyond.

Not all young people are ready for the demands of college, and it can be a big change from school.

Get Ready benefits from small groups, expert teachers alongside strong pastoral support.

UNITS/TOPICS COVERED:

Get Ready is a one year programme which contains the following elements to support this:

- Maths and English qualifications if needed
- Essential Digital Skills Qualification
- Certificate in Personal and Social Skills including topics such as teamwork, dealing with problems, managing relationships, and skills such as personal finances, community action and preparation for work
- Tutorial and enrichment
- Work experience

WHERE CAN IT LEAD?

Once students have successfully completed this introductory course they will, depending on their tutor reference, be able to progress at the College on to vocationally focussed Level 1 courses.
